GENERAL GENEALOGICAL SOURCES

World-wide and General Microfiche in Our Collection

We have in drawers MFM 72 and 73 the American Biographical Archives and its two supplements. This resource contains more than 1,000,000 biographical sketches of more than 250,000 Americans. In each of these three microfiche the entries are in alphabetical order although there is a partial general index (including to some persons mentioned in other person's sketches) on a computer CD-Rom disk. Also see the materials under "Special Groups" at the end of this handout.

The Church of Latter Day Saints (LDS or Mormons) has the largest genealogical library in the world and a program to microfilm all records of genealogical value. Their microfilms are loaned to any through their local libraries and through our library here at Wallace State. Usually this material is researched through the free Internet web site Familysearch.com. We have in our collection, in microfiche drawers MFM 84-87, microfiche of the catalogs and indexes to the LDS books, microfilms, and other records. These catalogs are superseded by our CD-ROM computer disks and the Internet web site Familysearch.com. This microfiche includes a bibliography of books and county records microfilms in the LDS library by location, under such as AFRICA, ALABAMA, ALASKA, and ALBANIA. The sub-headings under the locations are by records types and can be very confusing. Researchers should search of the fiche of a particular location to determine all possible records. Also in drawer MFM 85 is a list of the vital records.

Drawer MFM 85 also contains the Family Registry, a discontinued index to family information submitted from throughout the world, with the name and address of the persons who submitted the data. Information found in this index includes name, birth, death, marriage, and parents. Also included is the microfilm number for each person described, allowing the you to obtain a complete copy of the whole record from the LDS.

Microfiche drawer MFM 74 contains indexes and records prepared by Everton Publishing Company, P. O. Box 368, Logan, UT 84321, which publishes The Genealogical Helper, one of the nation's leading genealogical periodicals. We also have another index to this material on CD-ROM computer disk. The microfiche includes:

Family File, Vols. I and II. Each of these two sets of microfiche must be consulted separately. This microfiche indexes the Family Group Sheets, vols. I and II, described below. The indexes provides name, event (b=birth, m=marriage, d=death, etc.), the year of the event, the location of the event, and the number of the chart (Family Group Sheet, see below) where the information can be found. If the information is not found on a Family Group Sheet described below, write to Everton for the source.

Family Group Sheets, Vols. I and II. This microfiche is indexed by the Everton Family File above and consists of family charts.

Roots Cellar, Volume I. This microfiche indexes the requests for family information sent in to the "Roots Cellar" column of The Genealogical Helper over the years. The entries are arranged alphabetically only by surname, not in any way by first name. The Ancestors List provides information on the ancestors sought and the number that leads to the address of the person placing the query, as listed in the Submitters List microfiche.

Books, Genealogies, and Local Histories

An index to several early genealogies is found in drawer MFM 71, as is a history of the Lockhart-Moreland family, "Letter to my Grandchildren."

Selected microfiche from Jack T. Erison, ed., Genealogy & Local History (1982-1994) is found in drawers MFM 88-91, the fiche being marked "GLH". Consult the printed guides on top of the card catalog for specific authors, titles, and subjects. Microfiche in our collection has been highlighted in the published catalogs. Local histories (LH), genealogical serials (GS), and primary sources (PS) are also included. The title pages have been copied into our family vertical files. We also have a handout on locating family histories.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The Wallace State College Library also has the complete set of The Microbook Library of American Civilization although this microfiche is kept on the second floor of the library, not in the genealogy collection. A set of the published catalogs to this collection is kept on top of our card catalog, however. The best access to the books in this collection is to consult the subject catalog volume under the individual states.

We have a bibliography of the works of the Works Projects Administration in drawer MFM 69.

To see if someone filed for a claim consult the index at the beginning of the microfiche. Also kept on top of the cabinet is a guide to using this microfiche and the Southern Unionist Claims. ## ABOUT OUR PROGRAM

The Family and Regional History Program, Wallace State College, P. O. Box 2000, Hanceville, AL 35077-2000 (Phone: 256-352-8265) is on the fifth floor of the college library. The college is located near Cullman, Alabama, and is on Highway 31, a few miles east of Interstate-65 (take the Hanceville Highway 91 Exit), only one hour from Birmingham, Gadsden, and Huntsville. Our extensive and growing collection of research materials includes books, periodicals, microfilm, microfiche, cd-rom disks, computer programs, family folders, and much more. We have all of the catalogs to the holdings to the Genealogical Society of Utah and we are the first non-LDS institution to be able to borrow from their three millions records and books from around the world. Our collection, however, specializes in the southern states, the American Revolution, the Civil War, and southern Indian research. The holdings on the Cullman-Blount-Winston County area are particularly extensive. We have equipment to allow you to copy photographs and we microfilm old records of interest to our researchers. The hours are 8 to 8, Monday through Thursday; 8 to 4PM on Friday; and 9 AM to 3 PM on Saturday. The collection is completely open to the general public. The Program also offers college credit courses in genealogy from basic courses to computers to such specialties as court house, Georgia, and Civil War era research. Some courses are purely research field trips to archives and libraries across the South. Courses are tuition free to persons over age sixty and with special arrangements for persons not taking the courses for credit. Our introduction to genealogy course is available on video.
